

2009 Reminder Notice for Membership / Renewal Sister City Association of Kansas City, MO

Dear International Colleague,

December 2008

Thanks to your generous and continuous support throughout 2008, we had a wonderful and successful year. Among other exciting events, Sister City Association of Greater Kansas City MO hosted a Sister Cities International conference here in Kansas City this summer. The conference was a success with help of outstanding volunteers and your generous contributions.

We are ready to start a new year filled with activities and cultural exchange events that support our mission. We are looking forward to your support and involvement in a new year 2009!

Now is the perfect time to join or renew your membership with the Sister City Association of Kansas City, MO as January 1, 2009 marks the beginning of a new membership year! Enclosed you will find a registration form that you may fill out and mail to our office at 4600 E 63rd st, KCMO 64130 along with your annual dues. You may also visit us at www.kcsistercities.org to join/renew your membership online.

Kansas City's Sister City Program plays a significant role in the cultural enrichment and economic development of our city. It also contributes to world peace through its efforts to better develop our understanding of other countries' cultures and beliefs.

It is through the goodwill and productive exchanges that we enhance Kansas City's fabric as well as that of our wonderful Sister Cities.

Happy holidays to you and your loved ones!

Sincerely,

Irina Kobzeva
Administrator
